

THE ADJOURNMENT OF THE SENATE.

The time determined upon for the close of the session of Congress having nearly arrived, and Mr. Bayard being in the chair, Mr. Woodbury submitted the following resolution, which was considered by unanimous consent:

"Resolved, unanimously, That the thanks of the Senate be presented to the Honorable WILLIAM P. MANGUM for the ability and impartiality with which he has discharged the duties of President pro tempore of the Senate."

The resolution was passed without a dissenting voice, and after an interval occupied in the transaction of business—

Mr. Mangum, the President pro tempore, resumed the chair, and, being informed of the resolution in his absence, he rose and made the following brief address:

SENATORS: The moment of separation for this session having arrived, you will indulge me in occupying a part of this moment in giving expression to the feelings of sensibility and of gratitude with which the vote just passed in my regard has so deeply impressed me. The uniform spirit of kindness and courtesy which has ever been a distinguishing characteristic of the Senate of the United States, has not failed to impart to the individual who has had the honor to preside over its deliberations, a feeling of confidence that his acts would be viewed with kindness and forbearance. This anticipation has not only been realized through the tedious and sometimes laborious duties of legislation, but there is now superadded, by so generous an expression of satisfaction, an evidence of friendly feeling which shall be treasured in memory in all future time. In turn, I may be permitted to say, that I feel deeply sensible that the success which may have attended my endeavors to perform the responsible duties of presiding officer with impartiality, must be attributed to that courtesy which belongs peculiarly to this body, and to that dignity of decorum which has elevated its character in the rank of legislative assemblies of the world.

Differing as many of the members of this body do in political opinion, there is to be seen no interruption of that personal courtesy and friendly intercourse which men of high and honorable feeling may entertain for each other, and the knowledge of this feeling would forbid any other course by the presiding officer than that of the strictest impartiality in his administration of the duties of the Chair. In the desire to have pursued such course, a consciousness has been felt that honor and duty and justice require it at my hands. It is true that the duties are frequently arduous, and at all times of a responsible and delicate character, and, although entirely unconscious of having at any time done any act calculated to affect the rights or feelings of any individual of the body, still the frailty of human nature is such as to dictate the propriety of throwing myself on the indulgence of the Senate rather than lay claim to an exemption from such frailty. However this may be, I cannot disguise the satisfaction I feel in appealing to that silent monitor within, which bears witness to a determined purpose to do exact justice to all as far as practicable, and, while yielding to every individual a full measure of latitude and freedom of action, to maintain what must be considered in every well regulated legislative assembly the indispensable powers and prerogatives of the Chair, granted in fact by the body itself for the preservation of its own honor and dignity.

Senators, permit me to reiterate the feelings of gratitude I entertain for the unanimous expression of your approval of my course, enhanced in value, as it is, by having been thrice repeated; and, towards each member, permit me to avail of the occasion to say that I entertain no other feelings than those of respect and kindness, and beg leave to express my most earnest wish for the continued health and happiness of every one of you; and that on the return of each member to his home, he will have the pleasure to find all there in the enjoyment of health and happiness, and that it may long continue.

In the performance of my official duty I am now to pronounce the word of separation for this session by adjourning the Senate sine die.

LOCAL NEWS.

POLAND.—Major TOCHMAN, the accomplished and zealous advocate of the claims of Poland to national sympathy and aid, will address our citizens and military this evening at the Assembly Room on his country's struggles and wrongs. Major T. is an able and pleasing speaker, apart from the interest of his theme, and his discourses throughout the country have been attended with complete success. A mere nominal price has been fixed upon for admission (12½ cents) for the purpose of defraying the expense of the room, and we bespeak for him a full attendance. The volunteer companies of the city have been invited, and they are expected to attend in full uniform.

PLEASURE EXCURSION.—It will be seen, by their card, that the pioneers in affairs of this kind, the Washington Light Infantry, propose one of their delightful evening excursions, by steamboat, in a few days. Their character in getting up these matters is so well established, that anything of praise from us is superfluous. To all desirous of escaping for a few hours from the oppressive heat of the past few days, we recommend an excursion on the Potomac under the gentlemanly and attentive charge of the officers and members of the Washington Light Infantry.

A MEETING OF THE MECHANICS willing to assist in the erection of a Clay Club House will be held on Thursday evening, the 20th, at the City Hall at 7 o'clock.
By order of the Building Committee.

MAJOR G. TOCHMAN being on a visit in this city has accepted the invitation of his friends, and will deliver a lecture on the subject of the late revolution in Poland, in which he was personally engaged, on to-morrow (Thursday) evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Washington Assembly Rooms.

The Independent Companies of the city will attend the lecture in full uniform, with their military bands. Tickets of admission 12½ cents, to defray expenses.

DYOTT'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

A family medicine, a mild, gentle purgative, and purifier of the blood—the general use of these celebrated Pills throughout the United States for forty years past, and the strong recommendations they have acquired from all classes of our fellow citizens, places them in a much more elevated situation in public estimation, than any other remedy which has heretofore been introduced.

The following are among the many diseases for which Dr. Dyott's celebrated pills are so deservedly distinguished for curing. By their counteracting properties in removing the bile from the stomach, they prevent and cure the bilious fever, chills or ague and fever; spring and fall fevers; yellow fever; bilious cholera pleurisy; dysentery; worms; bilious vomiting; sick and full stomach.

By cleansing the bowels and stomach from all impurities, they restore the appetite; remove flatulency; cure the headache; habitual costiveness; colds; coughs; asthma; epileptic fits; hypochondria; hysterical complaint; strangury; gravel, &c.

By a general and copious use, they will be found very beneficial in curing the rheumatism and gout, lumbago or pains in the back. All impurities in the blood yield to their happy effects, whether proceeding from constitutional ailment, or from indiscreet intemperance.

These celebrated pills have been used to very great advantage in curing the dyspepsia, or indigestion, bronchitis, liver complaint, &c.

They are an infallible medicine for Female Complaints generally, and especially for removing those obstructions which are the source of their ailments at certain periods, they possess the eminent advantage over most other purgatives, that while they operate gently, they produce neither costiveness, debility, nor too great excitement.

Whenever there is a predisposition to receive disease from marsh effluvia, or from a too copious use of ardent spirits, or from a vitiated state of the bile, these pills will assuredly counteract it.

They are highly recommended to travellers by sea or land, and may be made use of without change of diet, and in situations where no exercise can be used. They will be found particularly valuable for preventing disease incidental to hot climates, they deterge and cleanse the humors, open obstructions and promote the secretion of good bile, operate as an easy cathartic, as a powerful diuretic, and as a diaphoretic.

Dr. Dyott, under the strong conviction of the power of his pills to relieve the afflicted, recommends the use of them to those who are in health as well as the afflicted, at least once a fortnight, during the Spring and Summer months, in which he feels assured those who attend to his advice will find the benefit they seek.

A bill of directions accompanies each box of Pills.

Take notice—each box is sealed with red wax, stamped with the Proprietor's coat of arms, and signed

For sale at the Bookstore of R. FARNHAM, corner of 11th street and Penn. Avenue, and at the most respectable Drug Stores in the District, where, also, are for sale separately, all the sixteen Standard Preparations as contained in Dyott's Family Medicine Chest.

SIDALL'S INDIAN VERMIFUGE.

THIS valuable medicine is offered to the public with the confident assurance of its superior efficacy as a remedy for worms. It not only expels the worms, but prevents the return of them, by removing the weak state of the digestive organs on which their production mainly depends. It also removes the superabundant mucus or slime existing in the stomach of children in bad health, and which forms the bed or nest in which the worms produce their young. In doubtful cases, where there is a general derangement of system from want of due action in the liver and a debilitated or torpid condition of stomach and bowels, the INDIAN VERMIFUGE gives speedy relief by cleansing the stomach and bowels and stimulating the liver to healthy action—the appetite is speedily restored, and the pale and sunken countenance give place to the plumpness of face, and the ruddy hue of health.

The following general agencies are established in Philadelphia, where the medicine may be had Wholesale and Retail:

Dyott's Fountain Head, Second above Race street, and Vaughan, Third and Race street. Price 25 cents.

For sale at R. FARNHAM'S Bookstore, corner of 11th street and Penn. Avenue, and at the most respectable Drug Stores in the District.

WHITWELL'S JAUNDICE TEMPERANCE BITTERS.

OR PEOPLE'S BEST REMEDY.—For the cure of Jaundice, Fever and Ague, Debility, Worms, &c.

EVIDENCE OF THE GOOD QUALITIES OF THIS COMPOUND.—Dr. Hooper, in his Medical Dictionary, in allusion to a prominent ingredient in these Bitters, says—"It has been found very effectual in restoring digestion, expelling flatulence, and removing costiveness, so common in sedentary life."

Dr. Lettsom, the most scientific physician in Europe, says, on the same page, "In hysterical affections, it affords more vigor and relief than any other article before known."

Dr. Bigelow, in his sequel to the U. S. Pharmacopoeia, says, page 331, in allusion to the same article, "It is one of the most valuable of the Bitter Tonics. It has an invigorating effect on the stomach and bowels, and is peculiarly serviceable in dyspepsia."

These Bitters contain a large proportion of the Extracts of Sarsaparilla and Tomatoes, as any bitters in the United States, and rank immeasurably above all others in existence for creating an appetite, reviving the spirits, and strengthening the whole system.

HOMOEOPATHIC PILLS, or a Medicine in the minutest doses, with the most beneficial results.—They are used for the same complaints as the Temperance Bitters, and should always be used together, the pills being a gentle cathartic, and the Bitters the best tonic, or strengthener, in existence. The Bitters are capital for cleansing the blood, are free from stimulus, and sold at the low price of 25 cents for a pint bottle, the Pills at 25 cents a box.

TO THE READER.—Whenever you want OPODELDOC, always buy Whitwell's, and no other, or you will be deceived and disappointed. It is infallible in Rheumatism, Sprains, &c.

WHITWELL'S AROMATIC SNUFF is also a capital article in Catarrh, Headache, &c. Price 25 cents a bottle.

For sale at the Bookstore of R. FARNHAM, corner of 11th street and Penn. Avenue, and at the most respectable Drug Stores in the District.
